How much is membership?

Membership of the UKPS is £20 for Full (senior) members, and £15 for Junior members*

How long does membership last?

The membership term is one calendar year from the membership start date.

Membership starts on the 1st of the month following the date that the application was received. For example, if we receive the application on the 17th of October, the membership will start on the 1st of November.

How can I pay?

There are three methods:

- Cheque (drawn at a UK bank)
- PayPal (on-line)*
- Bank transfer

Cheques should be enclosed with your application form and made payable to "The UK Pyrotechnics Society". If renewing your membership with a cheque you should ensure that the member's full name is written on the back of the cheque so that we can credit your application with the payment.

PayPal payments should be made to paypal@pyrosociety.org.uk in Pounds Stirling. Please ensure that your full name is given in the 'Notes' field so that we can credit your application with the payment.

For PayPal payments (), the price for full membership is £21 and for junior membership, £16. This is to cover administration fees.*

Bank transfer should be made to sort code 20-39-07, account number 00135933 (Beneficiary / Account holder: UK Pyrotechnics Society). Please ensure that your full name is given in the reference field so that we can credit your application with the payment.

What about renewal of membership?

We will contact you when it is time to renew your membership. At that time you can choose which method of payment you wish to take.
